Statement:

1. My full name is Narelle Elizabeth CURTIS. I am a Senior Sergeant of Police.
2. I currently perform the role of District Duty Officer, Brisbane West District.
3. I remember Friday the 20th of April 2012. On that date I was rostered 6am to 2pm.
4. At approximately 0730 hours on that date I received a mobile telephone call at Indooroopilly Station from Constable Kieron ASH.
5. As a result of that telephone call, in company with Sergeant Andrew JACKSON, I proceeded by police vehicle to an address of 593 Brookfield Road, BROOKFIELD.
6. Sergeant JACKSON was driving the police vehicle and he parked the police vehicle in front of a silver sedan with the boot open and up.
7. I saw a male person whom I now know to be Gerard BADEN-CLAY placing a round shaped vacuum cleaner into the boot of the vehicle. I saw another man whom I now know to be the father of Gerard BADEN-CLAY standing next to him. I also saw a silver coloured 4WD parked in the carport of the house and another beige coloured 4WD parked in the front yard.
8. In company with Sergeant JACKSON, I approached both men. At this time I saw two red marks on the right cheek of Gerard BADEN-CLAY which appeared to me to be consistent with scratch marks.

- 9. Sergeant JACKSON then activated an electronic recording device and recorded the conversation held with Gerard BADEN-CLAY. I have reviewed a transcript of that conversation and can confirm that is a true and correct record that I have adopted.

- 11. I had no further conversation with Gerard BADEN-CLAY and commenced to organise a search of the property and surrounding area for Allison June BADEN-CLAY.
- 12. I have had no further involvement in this matter since this date.

Police officer taking statement

Name: JACKSON, Andrew Robert

Rank: Sergeant

Reg. no.: 9560

Region/Command/Division: Metropolitan North
Region

Station: Indooroopilly

Statement:

1. My full name is Andrew Robert Jackson. I am a sergeant in general duties currently attached to the Indooroopilly Police Station.
2. I recall Friday 20 April 2012. On this day I was rostered to work 6am to 2 pm as the Indooroopilly Shift Supervisor. At about 8.10am I was at the Indooroopilly Police Station and had a conversation with the District Duty Officer, Senior Sergeant Narelle CURTIS. As a result of that conversation we travelled to 593 Brookfield Road, Brookfield in relation to a male person reporting his wife missing.
3. At about 8.34am we arrived at the address in a marked police vehicle. On driving into the driveway I observed another police car parked up to the right hand side of the driveway in front of a carport area, a Toyota Prado vehicle parked to the left of the police vehicle horizontal with the front of the house, and a Holden Statesman vehicle parked rear end in to the left side of the house.
4. I then parked my police vehicle approximately 10 metres past the front gate. I saw the uniformed police standing on the top right side of the driveway.

5. I observed a male person of about 65 years of age walking across the driveway holding a vacuum cleaner. I saw this male person walk over to the back of the Holden sedan and load the vacuum into the boot.
6. I then alighted from the police car and was approached by Constable Kieran ASH and he told me something.
7. I then activated a digital voice recorder and walked towards the front of the house with Senior Sergeant CURTIS where I observed a male Caucasian of about 40 years of age standing at the top of the driveway. I noticed that this male person was clean shaven, wearing suit pants, a tie and long sleeved business shirt. I now know this person to be Gerard BADEN-CLAY.
8. I approached Gerard BADEN-CLAY with Senior Sergeant CURTIS and had a conversation with him. I immediately noticed that Gerard had two fresh looking lacerations down his right cheek. These lacerations looked to me like scratch marks. I then said something to Constable ASH.
9. I then walked up the front steps of the property with Senior Sergeant CURTIS and Gerard BADEN-CLAY and we walked through the house and took a seat at a dining table. Inside the house was Constable Leah HAMMOND and a female person who I only know as Gerard BADEN-CLAY's sister. A short time later I asked all persons other than Senior Sergeant CURTIS and Gerard BADEN-CLAY to leave the house.
10. During the conversation with Gerard I stood up for a short period of time and walked over to a room which had been identified as the main bedroom and had a quick look around it. I then walked back to the table and continued with the conversation with Gerard BADEN-CLAY.
11. After speaking with Gerard BADEN-CLAY for about 23 minutes I observed a red lacerated mark to the inside of his right hand.
12. After 26 minutes of conversation Senior Sergeant CURTIS and I stood up from the table. I observed Senior Sergeant CURTIS walk towards the front door and make a call on her mobile phone. I then walked towards the front door and used my QPS radio to contact Police Communications and request all available Indooroopilly units to attend the address for the purpose of commencing a search.

13. I then stopped the digital voice recorder while I walked outside and instructed Constable ASH to have a look around the yard.

I NOW PRODUCE A COPY OF THAT DIGITAL VOICE RECORDING
I NOW PRODUCE A TRANSCRIPT OF THAT CONVERSATION

14. About 8 minutes later I walked back inside the house and reactivated the digital voice recorder and had a further conversation with Gerard BADEN-CLAY for about another four minutes.

I NOW PRODUCE A COPY OF THAT DIGITAL VOICE RECORDING
I NOW PRODUCE A TRANSCRIPT OF THAT CONVERSATION

15. Following that conversation I walked out of the house and into the front area of the property. I then had a further conversation with Constable ASH and HAMMOND. About 30 minutes later I observed three plain clothes officers from Indooroopilly Criminal Investigation Branch (CIB) arrive at the front of the property. I know these officers as Kelly THOMPSON, Cameron MCLEOD and Cameron SIMMONS. I had a short conversation with those officers.

16. I then walked with them back up to the house. I reactivated the digital voice recorder and introduced the CIB officers to Gerard BADEN-CLAY. After introducing the CIB staff I left my digital voice recorder with them. I then walked out of the house and had nothing further to do with Gerard BADEN-CLAY.
